

Bachelor of Science in Social Work

- Students will recognize ethical dilemmas, and apply relevant laws, regulations and codes of ethics to make ethical decisions that promote human and community well-being.
- Students will apply cultural awareness, self-awareness and self-regulation skills in engaging and working with diverse clients at the micro, mezzo and macro system levels.
- Students will analyze theories of human need and advocate for the advancement of social, economic and environmental justice.
- Students will apply research-informed practice, social science research methods and theories to inform and improve social work research, practice, policies and service delivery.
- Students will comprehend and translate policies that impact delivery of services at the global, federal, state and local levels and advocate for policy and policy change that enhances human and community well-being.
- Students will apply human behavior in the social environment and other multidisciplinary theoretical frameworks to engage with diverse clients and constituencies using interpersonal and interprofessional skills.
- Students will identify needs and intervention strategies in collaboration with diverse populations and constituencies by applying appropriate assessment methods.
- Students will plan and implement multidisciplinary intervention strategies for achieving agreed-upon goals and enhancing the capacities of diverse populations and constituencies.
- Students will compare and contrast interventions, outcomes, policies and processes to monitor and enhance practice, policy and service delivery effectiveness at the micro, mezzo and macro level.
- Student will engage in effective communication in the classroom and the workplace.